THE DOCTOR'S STORY.

I am a physician, kind reader, residing in the beautiful City of Elms. I was born in this same city, and have always lived here. I knew its every nook and corner. I have reveled beneath its lofty elms, through its streets by day and by night, for many and many a long year. My business has called me abroad as often by night as by day, and I have heard the old clock up in the steeple of the "middle church" strike all the hours of the night, and that, too, a great many times. I have been called up late at night, very many times—more than I ever shall again; for I am old now; my forehead is wrinkled, and my hair has been white a long time; and the last call that I shall have will come soon. But to my story—and in commencing, let me say that events which I am about to relate, took place a great many years ago, and you, my friends, do not recollect the time I write of. I was a young man then, and had been in "practice" but a few years. I remember as well as though it were but yesterday, the morning I am about to tell you of—and a colder one I never saw. There was snow upon the ground, and the cold wind had piled it in huge drifts; the wind was blowing a perfect gale, and the snow was and falling fast; I had just come from my breakfast, and was sitting by a hot blazing wood fire in my office. I had taken my boots off and sat warming my feet, when I heard the door open, and turning I beheld a little girl, a very little girl,—she could not have been more than six years old. "Well, what do you want?" I asked, sharply—for I was not in a very good humor that cold stormy morning. The little thing stretched out her tiny red hand, and in her childish voice I heard—"Please, sir, give me a cent to buy some bread?" Why I did not give her what she asked, and more, ask me not; but I drove her from my door. I have shed many bitter tears over the fact, and prayed many times to be forgiven the act of that moment of my life. I told her to be gone and called her a little Mab. She shut the door, and I took my seat again by the fire, but I was not easy. I lit a cigar, and puffed away at that, but I could not forget the little girl. "Please, sir, give me a cent," was ringing in my ears. I arose and walked to the window. I rubbed off the frost with my hand and looked out—I saw the tracks of the poor little creature's feet, and discovered for the first time that she was barefooted; yes, upon that cold morning she was wading through the snow with her feet bare; yes, there were marks of her feet in the snow—and in the centre of one of them was a spot of blood. Great heaven! what would I have given to recall her back! At last it was too late—and "Please, sir, give me a cent" rings in my ears to this day. I tried every way to forget the little girl, but I could not—and every time I looked out of the window, there were those little footprints. I believe they would have driven me mad, had I not taken the office broom and erased them. Night at last came, and the snow was still falling; the wintry blast swept through the deserted streets, the snow fell against the windows, and the trees groaned as they bent before the storm. It was a dismal night, and but few were abroad. I retired early and was soon asleep, from which I was startled by a loud knock at the door. Inwardly hoping that no poor mortal would require my service that night, I opened the door. A gust of wind put out the light and half filled the hall with snow. When I got my eyes cleared, I perceived to my astonishment, a little boy standing shivering on the steps. He was poorly clad, and the little fellow was almost frozen; but he looked up into my face, and the tears rolled down my cheeks as he said, "Good, kind M. Doctor, will you come and see my poor mother? she is very sick—she is indeed—and mother is very poor, and she says she is afraid you won't come, because she can't pay you, sir; and little Sis says she'll never come to your place and make you angry again, sir, because she's very sick, and she says she is going to die, sir."

Could I refuse such an appeal and from such a source? No! I went with the little fellow to his home. Away up in the top of an old frame house, I found what he called "home." I thought I knew something of the world. I thought I had seen poverty—but I must confess that I never saw a sight like that before. A small piece of a candle was burning from the mouth of an old ink bottle, by which I got a view of the premises. The windows were entirely gone, and large drifts of snow had formed upon the floor. Upon a bundle of straw, covered with old rags, I found a woman, and the little child of yesterday.

"My God!" I exclaimed, "how can you live here on such a night?" The poor woman opened her eyes—she was too far gone to speak, and pointed to a crust of bread upon the floor, for she had no table. I broke off a piece, and she motioned me to give some to the little creature at her side. I took the little girl by the hand, and upon doing so she opened her eyes, and recognizing me, she exclaimed, "Oh, sir, you will not hurt me, will you?" I assured her that I would not, and she fell asleep again. They were both sick. Cold and want had brought them to the verge of the grave; they were too sick to be removed, and I was thinking how I could best make them comfortable, when the little boy who had been standing all the while spoke. "Oh, sir," said he, "can you do anything for them? you won't let mother and Sis die, and be buried in the ground as poor father was, will you, sir?" I told the little fellow that I would do all in my power to save them. I asked him why he did not call me before. "Oh, sir," says he, "I was just going to see you yesterday, when Sis came, and she said you was a cross old man, and she said if you had driven me away, and I was afraid you would put me in the poor house, and I did not want to go there, sir."

"Don't tell me it's unmanly to cry! He must have a hard heart, indeed, who could stand where I did and not feel as I did; I told the little fellow I was very sorry, and he should never want for a home or a friend while I lived. I told him to watch by his mother and sister, while I would go and get some wood for a fire, and some other necessaries; I did so, and returning as soon as possible, found the little fellow completely exhausted, and fast asleep.

The mother was dead, and the little girl's fever was much worse. If it had been my own child I could not have done more for it than I did for that little girl, but death had marked her for its own, I was too late, and before the sun had set the following day, her little spirit had gone to Him who gave it. I saw them both buried. I shall never forget the scene in the burying ground; the grave-digger with his pick-axe; that heap of frozen earth mixed with snow; that dismal looking opening in the earth; all form a part of a picture I never shall forget. The old minister who officiated has long been dead; there was a long line of carriages, no mourners but that one small boy and myself. The minister and myself lowered them—mother and daughter, into the same grave, where they will sleep until the judgment. God knows I wept bitter tears that day, for I was a wiser man.

A few words about that boy and I am done. He lives. I took him to my home, reared and educated him some twenty years since; he made the South his home, and this day that little fellow who was, is one of the most eloquent members of the bar at ——, and an ornament to the profession. He has been a member of the late Senate three terms, and of the United States House of Representatives one.

My friends, my story is finished, and the old Doctor will conclude by saying, when you put money in the contribution box for foreign missionaries, also remember the poor at your own door.

A FEW OF THE ANCIENT BLUE LAWS

The following were some of the "Blue Laws" of Connecticut, which we here insert. They may be quite a curiosity to many of our readers:

The judge shall determine controversies without a jury.

No one shall be a freeman or give a vote, unless he be a member in full communion with one of the churches allowed in this dominion.

No minister shall join people in marriage—the magistrate only shall join people in marriage; they may do it with less candal to Christ's Church.

When parents refuse their children a convenient marriage, the magistrate is to determine the point. The selectmen, on finding the children ignorant, may take them away from their parents and put them into better hands at the expense of their parents.

MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.

PUBLISHED BY

BLAISDELL & HOPPER.

C. W. BLAISDELL, J. C. HOPPER.

MARIPOSA:

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1854.

☞ MR. JOHN E. METSON, Mail Carrier between this place and Sonora, is hereby authorised to receive any advertisements, job work, subscriptions, or moneys intended for the Mariposa Chronicle.

☞ DAVID W. BUCK, No. 142 Clay Street, is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

The election on Wednesday passed off very quietly in this place, but few drunken men and "mara fight"—a result scarcely anticipated by the most sanguine lover of good order. With the great number of candidates in the field, and the amount of good liquor legally punished on election day, affrays and squabbles of all kind are considered common occurrences—to common in our opinion to be of much credit to the parties concerned.

Many of the "sovereigns" frequently forget in the exercise of their rights as independent citizens of an independent country, that the same priveleges extend to all, and that but little real advantage ever accrues to those who seek to exercise an undue control over the wishes and actions of others.

PERSONAL.—We have been gratified during the last week by a visit from C. D O'Sullivan, Esq, who has but recently returned from a visit to New Orleans, from whence he returned with an additional rib in the shape of an accomplished young wife. Mr. S. has been a member of one of our first and most enterprising business firms, and a resident of the county since early in 1850.

We also recognize another old acquaintance in the person of Capt. Thomas, who has just returned from the Atlantic States to resume his former business amongst us. We hail all "returns" of such material, as adding to the real strength of California.

Hon, Sam. Bell, Comptroller of State, has been in town for several days, and from his appearance we are inclined to believe that his constitution is fully equal to the cares of office, not forgetting the good things of Sacramento, etc.

Mariposans are proud of their Comptroller, and point to him as a specimen of what they can do when they set about it.

RACE AT SNELLINGS.—The race between Mr. Green's colt entered by Mr. A. J Gregory, and Mr. Snelling's Stallion for $1000 a side, distance 440 yards, came off on Saturday last and was so closely contested, that the Judges have been unable to decide which is the winner! The question has been referred to arbitrators, both parties refusing to withdraw the stakes, and both claiming the victory.

We understand that another race between the same horses is to take place on Saturday the 23d Inst., independent however, of the decision in the other case.

Among the arrivals per Steamer last week at San Francisco, we notice that of Dr Gwin by the Sonora, and of Mr. Latham and Harry Love, by the Yankee Blade.

Mr. McDougall has been detained by sickness in his family, and Col. Weller it is said, is about making the tour of Europe.

The services of our Congressmen have been of almost incalculable importance to California, and they deserve as they will doubtless receive the hearty approval and congratulations of their constituents.

STEAMERS FOR THE EAST.—It appears that the combination lately existing between the different ocean steamers to keep up the rates of passage, has ceased. On Wednesday, says the Times and Transcript, tickets for the Nicaragua route were sold as follows:—Cabin, $200; Second Cabin, $125; Steerage, $75. The mail line came down still lower, selling Cabin tickets at $150; Second Cabin, $100; and Steerage $30. The latter rates were conformed to by the Independent Line.

CHOLERA.—The memoranda of the purser of the steamer Sonora reports eight deaths from cholera on that steamer, during her passage from Panama to San Francisco. The passengers state that not less than fifteen deaths from cholera occurred during the trip.

IN EARNEST.—The British sloop-of-war Amphitrite and the French corvette l'Artemise, says the San Francisco Sun, seem to be really in earnest in search of something that says "yaw," when they mean yes. The Dutch ship Nova Zembia, Capt. Gansen, arrived yesterday from Hong-kong, with three hundred and twenty more of the long-tailed gentry from the "Flowery Land"—reports that on the 2d inst. just to the southward of the Farralones, she was fired into twice by the Amphitrite. The Nova Zembla hove-to, and a boat was sent on board with an officer from the sloop-of-war, who requested to know her nationality. Capt. Gansen informed him that she was Dutch, and asked his reasons for firing without having hailed, to which query he was answered that it was not customary. She fired twice, and on both occasions the guns were shotted. When the Nova Zembla hove-to, the Amphitrite took up her position at her bow, and the l'Artemise at her stern. The N. Z. was standing to the southwest when she was fired at, and at 3 P. M. of the same day, the men-of-war were distinguishable standing on the same course.

MARINE BASIN AND RAILWAY IN SAN FRANCISCO.—A contract has been made by the Government with Gilbert Secor, of New York, for the construction of a Marine Basin and Railway, near San Francisco, for $840,000.

The following is the whole number of votes cast in the Township for each candidate for the offices of Justice of the Peace and Constable, as far as we have heard:

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

Washburn, 408; Blackwell, 178; Beckham, 156; Whittier, 171; Young, 82.

CONSTABLES.

Marks, 82; Lyons, 89; Kelly, 173; Cannon, 144; Nuttall, 157; Moore, 79; Harbert, 158; Mann, 18; Bostick, 24; Clark, 115.

The above are the returns of the principal Precincts in this Township, and some of the chief Precincts in other parts of the County. Some of the reports only gave the vote for State, and others that for County ticket, and doubtless contain some inaccuracies, but is sufficiently correct to show how the "cat jumped." There is a considerable vote yet to hear from, which may alter the above very materially.

CATTLE STEALING.—Eleven horses were stolen from the ranch of Mr. May Edgar, six miles below Millerton, on the 31st ult. A party were organized and started in pursuit next day. It is to be hoped that the rascals may be caught, and summary justice inflicted upon them.

Only about ten days ago a most daring attempt was made to rob the store of Messrs. Deblois & Chrisholm, near Fort Miller. The room in which they were sleeping, attached to the store, was entered by some unknown persons and ransacked, trunks opened and boxes overturned, in search of money supposed to be there. The burglars departed, however, with only a few dollars in change and a Bowie-knife. Fortunately, a small box, containing quite a large amount of gold dust, and which was handled by the thieves, was left unopened.

A reward of $750 has been offered for the discovery of the persons engaged in this daring attempt, but as yet suspicion has fastened upon no one.

The store of Mr. Campbell, on Fine Gold Gulch, was entered in the night, some few weeks since, and $800 in gold dust was abstracted from a drawer under the counter, upon which a person was sleeping at the time.

From all parts of the county we hear accounts of robberies and attempted robberies, affrays and assaults, and yet the public do not seem to realize the condition to which we are rapidly approaching, and which we will most assuredly arrive at unless some decisive steps are taken to rid us of the gangs of lawless vagabonds who are prowling over the country without any visible means of support, depending upon their crimes for a maintenance.

PUB. DOC'S.—We are under many obligations to Messrs. Gwin Latham and McDougall, for copies of valuable Congressional documents, Reports, &c.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMERS BROTHER JONATHAN, YANKEE BLADE AND SONORA.

By the arrival of the Brother Jonathan on the 30th, and the Sonora and Yankee Blade on the 31st, we are in receipt of two weeks later intelligence from the Atlantic States and Europe, a summary of which will be found below:

ADMIRAL NAPIER.—Admiral Napier has sent a most singular request to the English Government. He requires permission to attack Cronstadt. When he sailed, the British journals were full of what he could do, or rather what he said he would do. We were informed that Cronstadt would be laid in ruins by the fire of his guns, within a very few weeks; three or four times the period has elapsed, and we are told at last advices that he was quietly retiring from before Cronstadt, and had gone to Ala d Island, without doing anything but destroying the defenceless village of Helleaborg, where those engaged committed atrocities that would forever disgrace a Kalmuck.

ENGLAND.—This country seems to be exceedingly "hard up" for the means to carry on the war. Lord John Russell had given notice in Parliament of his intention to ask for an additional war credit of £3,000,000. The Opposition intended to make it a party question, and endeavored to force the ministry to resign.

The rapid passage of the steamer Golden Age, from Australia to Panama, had called forth the favorable comments of the English press.

ASIA.—Kerim Pacha had surprised 12,000 Russians and defeated them, capturing six guns and 400 men, at a pass in the mountains.

GREECE.—The Porte consents to re-open Turkish ports to Greek merchantmen, but demands from Greece indemnity for losses sustained through the recent Greek insurrection.

SPAIN.—The news is very important. The insurrection was spreading rapidly. By telegraph from Bayonne on the 20th, it is stated that Madrid and its garrison have pronounced against the Queen. The Cabinet is dissolved, and San Lino, the Premier, has fled.

Narvaez had offered to form a new Ministry.

Espartero had placed himself at the head of the insurgents, and was marching on Madrid with the centre division, while Gen. Zabana advances with a force from the Basque provinces.

Vittoria, Burges, Valadolid, Granada, Saragossa, Zaragona, Pampaluna, Barcelona, San Sebastian, and several smaller cities, also the Balearic Islands, have declared for the insurgents. Saragossa is expected to join the revolt.

The insurrection hitherto has been mostly military, but the citizens were joining it. The watchwords are "Viva la Constitution." "Down with the Ministry." "Down with Queen Christina."

Carlist guerilla bands have appeared in Catalonia.

Rumors were current that Queen Christina had fled to Bayonne, and that Queen Isabella had left Madrid; also, that the Duke of Montpensier had been declared Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom, but all these rumors were considered doubtful.

The insurgents, if successful, may offer the throne to Don Pedro of Portugal. The French Governmen is said to favor the insurrection. An aid-de-camp of the King of Portugal is understood to have sought an interview with Napoleon, to consult him on the subject. Napoleon replied that he could not enter into the project, but did not say he would interfere to prevent it. It is surmised that Russia is implicated in the insurrection, with the view of disturbing the attention of France and England.

The German Powers now announce that in their opinion the propositions contained in the Russian answer, if not altogether satisfactory, appear to them calculated to serve as a basis for further negotiations; and they propose that Prague shall be fixed upon as the seat of further conferences. They moreover expressed an opinion that it will not be possible to call upon Russia to evacuate the Principalities, if it be not at the same time clearly understood that the allied Powers shall stop their movements in advance. In other words, Austria had fallen back into an alliance with Russia.

All the Austrian reserves are to be called out and placed on a war footing,

The British and French troops show a most decided reluctance to engage actively in the struggle. We have accounts of reviews, grand military parades, splendid accoutrements and sham fights; but no fights in earnest in which they take part.

Accounts from St. Petersburg state that the Czar is determined not to yield, but discontent prevails in the capital.

The details received show that the recent victory at Glurgevo was achieved by the Turks unassisted, leaving the whole bank of the Danube from Turun to Oltenitza in their hands.

The main body of the Turkish army is said to be moving towards the mouth of the Danube.

None of the Anglo-French troops have yet been in action.

French troops from Adrianople are marching towards Varna.

The British are in camp at Devana.

The English and French are slowly drawing their lines closer around the Russians.

Omer Pacha had reviewed the Anglo-French troops.

We however find that the British sailors are engaged in some useful employment, and hope to have some fighting soon. It is earnestly hoped that their laudable desire will be fully gratified. Thus far, "Jack" is the only one who seems to be willing to "put in his oar."

The allies have repaired and occupied the Russian batteries at the Salina, mouth of the Danube, and are employed in removing sunken ships from the channel.

The Russian Danube flotilla must soon fall into the hands of the allies.

Free navigation of the Danube is again re-established.

English seamen from the fleet have been sent to man the Turkish boats on the Danube, with the intention of capturing the Russian river flotilla.

The New Orleans papers have the following, obtained through Capt Wm. Smith who arrived at San Antonio, on the 28th July, having made the trip from El Paso in twenty-one days.—

Water and grass were very scarce on the route, which caused a great deal of auffering and loss among parties going through to California. Messrs. Fairchild and McClure had reached El Paso, having lost two hundred head of cattle.—Mr. Grayson's party, from the Brazos, with five hundred head of cattle, were met eighty miles from El Paso. They had only lost twelve head. Mr. Dunlap's party were met twelve miles lower down. They had lost seven hundred head of cattle, in consequence of the scarcity of water at Eagle Springs, Van Horn's Wells, and Dead Man's Hole. The road between these points was literally strewn with their carcasses. Mr Oliver, with his party, from the Colorado, were at Eagle Springs, with two hundred head of cattle. They had two hundred taken by the Mescalaro Indians. Mr. Erskine and party, with cattle were at Rock Creek on the 3d of July. Near the head of the Limpia, the Indians stole three oxen from this party. Ten of their number followed the Indians to their camp, which was forty or fifty strong, killed five, recovered their cattle, and carried off twelve horses and mules, some of which were worth $125 each. The Indians rallied and charged, in great numbers, but the ten six-shooters kept them at bay. Messrs Franklin and Dean were met at Wild Rose Canon, with a drove of cattle, having lost none. Mr. John James and party were met at Limpia Springs, having lost none of their cattle. Major Longstreeth, Capt. Cowman and party were met at Oak Creek, in good condition. Dogverre's train was at the same place. Messrs McRae and Rankin were at the head of Devil's river on the 13th of July. They had lost one hundred and twenty-five head of cattle. Mr. James Dawson was at the head of Devil's river, slowly recovering from his wounds. The Marysville Herald chronicles two squashes, one weighing 84 lbs. and the other 61 lbs. In New Mexico the United States troops and the Jacorillas and Apaches have had severe struggles recently, in one of which Lieut. Maxwell was killed. U. S. CLAIM UPON COLLECTOR COLLIER.—It appears upon examination, that in September last a balance was stated by the accounting officers, to be due from Collier to the United States, of $241,000. Of this balance, his sureties paid into the treasury, (thereby admitting that this sum of public money has been withheld for several years,) $118,546.

The question whether Collier is legally liable to pay the remainder of this claim is now pending before the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York. At the April term, 1854, the United States obtained a verdict for the whole amount claimed, subject to the decision of the Court upon certain points of law reserved. These points will not be argued and decided until the October term of that Court.

It may not be out of place to state that neither has the criminal case against Mr. Collier been concluded. The United States has taken an appeal in that case, from the opinion of the State Judge of Ohio, to the Supreme Court of Ohio in bank; and from the decision of the latter, we understand, an appeal lies to the Supreme Court of the United States.

BEVERLY C. SANDERS.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune of the 17th June, says:—"Mr. Beverly C. Sanders, of San Francisco, who left Paris for the Russian capital in the month of January last, has succeded in effecting an arrangement with the Russian Government, which will secure to him an immense fortune, if he is permitted to enjoy for any great length of time the contract which he has made. By this arrangement he becomes Russian Paymaster for the western coast of America, and enjoys certain rights in connection with Russian commerce which, it is expected, will prove extremely lucrative. Mr. Sanders is living in the most princely style in St. Petersburg, and frequently gives dinners a l'improviste, which frighten even the wealthy Russian noblemen by their costliness."

ATTEMPT TO FIRE THE CITY OF SAN JOSE.—The San Jose Tribune says, a bold attempt was made on Friday night, about 2 o'clock, to set fire to the city on Market street. It appears that the incendiary had kindled a fire in an alley, but before the flames had made much progress, the fire was discovered and extinguished.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER."

Why will people endure pimples on "the human face divine," or eruptions of any kind, when it is a fact so well known, that DR. GUYSOTT'S YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA cleanses the skin from all impurity, removing Pimples, Sores and Blotches, leaving the affected parts as healthy, smooth and soft, as the flesh of a babe. It is really priceless to all who wish the rosy beauty of childhood.

It causes all sores and poisonous wounds to discharge all infected matter, and eradicates every impurity from the system. It does its work mildly and effectually, giving conscious beauty and blooming health in the place of ugliness and soul sickening disease.

The Eyes! The Eyes!!

DR. E. H PARDEE, OCULIST.

AFTER a protracted blindness of more than five years, Dr. PARDEE has made himself thoroughly and scientifically acquainted with all Disorders of the Eye, and is now practising, with universal success, the same treatment by which he was cured.

A WORD OF CAUTION—The Eye is by far too precious and delicate an organ to be trifled with or made the subject of random experiments; therefore it would be exceedingly unwise, and perhaps dangerous, to accept any of the "Never-Failing Cures" that are tendered by the mistaken kindness of all around, for every one offers a specific for diseases of the eye.

PRACTICAL DENTIST.

WOULD call the attention of his friends, and the inhabitants of San Francisco and vicinity to his office where they can have all Dentist Operations whether SURGICAL OR MECHANICAL done in a style that cannot be excelled or even equalled by any Operator in this City or Country.

DR. B. would say to those wishing Artificial Teeth that he is now prepared to manufacture and insert which for natural appearance, beauty, and durability, are superior to any thing before used in this place.

Persons wishing to have Teeth filled, will find that Dr. B.'s operations are not excelled by any other Dentist in the city. The greatest pains will be taken to make the Filling permanent.

To those wishing Teeth Extracted, he has always met with the greatest success in removing carious teeth and fangs.

Chloroform and Ether from the best manufactory in the States, and used with great care.

Dr. B. would further state that with his mechanical skill and practical knowledge of Dentistry, he feels confident he can satisfy the most fastidious. Call and see for yourselves.

Testimonials from the Press.

(From the "Echo du Pacifique.")
DR. HUNGERFORD:

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this gentleman, whose extensive practice and great success is sufficient to induce all those afflicted to give him a call. The Doctor is not only a regularly educated Physician, but he has the principles of honesty and a heart that can feel for his fellow-beings. He has undoubtedly more practice than any other Physician in San Francisco, and it is fast increasing. To those acquainted with the Doctor, we say nothing as to his skill and integrity, as they are well known; but to strangers WE DO SAY, call at No. 226½ Dupont street, and you will find that a friend in need is a friend indeed.

(From the "Southern Medical Journal.")
PROFESSOR HUNGERFORD.

Although opposed to the system of advertising, yet we deem it but just to this gentleman to admit that his system of treatment in Private Diseases is undoubtedly the most approved one now in use throughout the civilized world.

FROM DR HUNGERFORD'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL ROOMS, No. 226½ DUPONT STREET
[BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND JACKSON.]
SAN FRANCISCO.

Where all diseases of a private character receive the treatment necessary to effect a speedy and effectual cure of those annoying and distressful complaints. The enviable reputation Dr. Hungerford has earned for himself by his extraordinary success in all diseases of a private nature, renders it but necessary to state his address; he therefore avoids the long advertisements of bombastic promises of the empirics of the day, so lavishly held out but seldom fulfilled. Medicines are sent to all parts of the country, with directions for their use.

NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, Ulcers in the Throat, Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Strictures, Gleet, and those dreadful symptoms of the head, throat, nose and skin, under the Hungerford treatment, are healed in an incredibly short time, without mercury. Young men who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which ruins both body and mind, call immediately on Dr. Hungerford, and you can depend on being restored to health, that greatest of God's blessings.

STONE, GRAVEL, &c.—The efficacy of Dr. Hungerford's Lithontriptic has proved beyond a doubt to be the most certain cure in the above named most painful cases that the human frame is subject to. au5-3m

PROCLAMATION!

Ye Miners—all who love to roam,
So far away from friends and home,
Just please to stop awhile and see
What glorious news you'll get from me.

Those friends at home, why, "bless your eyes!"
You now can take them by surprise,
And show your bearded, whiskered faces,
And all your "Claims" and mining places,
Your "Tom" and "Sluice," and "tailings" too;
And even the water running through.
All this, and more, sirs, you are able
To place at home upon your table,
Thousands of miles far, far away
From this same California!
And how? Quite easy—just walk round
Towards the upper end of town,
At Mariposa, and there's the place
To get a Picture of your face.
Walk into Plecker's Saloon—
From morn 'till late in afternoon—
You'll find all things prepared for action,
And warranted to give satisfaction.
Daguerreotypes—all sorts and kinds—
To suit all fancies and all minds;
Large and small, and splendid cases,
Suitable for "Claims" or "Faces;"
Or, if you choose, a handsome Locket,
Exactly fit for a sweetheart's pocket.
All this, and more than I can mention,
You'll find there to attract attention.
Come all, no matter what your trade is,
Come right along and bring the Ladies;
(And whether they are fair or no,
Daguerreotype will quickly show.)
Pictures in any kind of weather,
Singly, or two or more together.
Now if you want a "view" or "claim,"
Walk in and "register your name;"
Or come my specimens to see—
No charge for that—admittance free!
Saloon in readiness, boys, rest assured,
I may be off ere you expect.
Pictures good, and prices low,
Now's you chance, before I go.
Recollect the name—and call in soon—
Plecker's Daguerreotype Saloon.

NORCROS

MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.

A PRETTY FOOT.

There's magic in a lady's foot,
And well the ladies know it—
And she who has a pretty one
Is pretty sure to show it.
At times you, too, are martyred by
The nicest little ankle,
That shoots an arrow through the eyes,
Within your heart to rankle.

Of course you turn your gaze aside,
And all your blushes stifle,
For well you know she's not aware
Her skirts are raised a trifle.
But should you think she might perchance
Have on a loosened gaiter,
Your fingers itch to play the part
Of honest lady's waiter.

Though tactical it still he is crazed—
Stark mad with will romancing,
That witching foot along his brain
A thousand waltzes dancing,
The while it merely lightly pats,
As though loss she may move it—
No modest man would dare to dream
There is a leg above it.

But when it trips across the street,
Through winds, and mud, and vapor,
By sheerest accident you see,
How beautiful the taper;
And as it steps upon the walk,
Amist the crowd to mingle,
Two roguish eyes look up and say,
"I wonder if she's single?"

But I would have no lady think
I fancy her a schemer,
And beg her to remember that
The poet is a dreamer;
He sees what others do not see,
And seeks for hidden beauty—
No pretty face can lure him from
The path of moral duty.

PHŒNIX ON THE FOURTH IN SAN DIEGO.

The immortal John Phœnix has furnished the Herald with a report of the celebration of the late national anniversary in San Diego. We extract as follows:

At 8 A. M. a procession was formed, and moved to the sound of a military band, consisting of a gong and a handbell, across the Plaza, where it separated into two divisions, one proceeding to the Union House, the other to the Colorado Hotel. At each of these excellent establishments an elegant "dejuner," was served up, of the sumptuousness of which the following bill of fare will give some faint idea:

BREAKFAST BILL OF FARE.

Coffee,	Cafe, con sucre,
Bread,	Pan,
Butter,	Mantequilla,
Fried Beefsteaks,	Carne,
Hash,	No se,

At 9 A. M precisely, the San Diego Light Infantry, in full uniform, consisting of Brown's little boy in his shirt and, fired a national salute with a large bunch of fire crackers. This part of the celebration went off admirably; with the exception of the young gentleman having set fire to his shirt-tail, which was fortunately extinguished immediately without accident.

At 12 M, an oration was delivered by a gentleman in the Spanish language, in front of the exchange, of which your reporter regrets to say he has been unable to remember but the concluding sentence, which, however, he is informed, contains many fine ideas. It was nearly as follows:

'Hoy es el dia de Santa Refugia! Hic, Los Americanos son ab jos, no vale nada, Hic, nada, nad, nada, nacia, Mira! bombre, dame me pecado aguadiente. Caraj!'

This oration was remarkably well received, and shortly after, the band commencing its performance, the procession was again formed, and dividing as before, moved off to dinner.

The afternoon passed pleasantly away in witnessing the performances of a gentleman who had been instituting a series of experiments to test the relative strength of various descriptions of spirituous liquors, and who, becoming excited and enthusiastic thereby, walked round the Plaza and howled dismally.

"Why, Sarah," remarked a schoolmaster to a young girl, who had failed to give a satisfactory answer to a question in arithmetic, "when I was of your age I could answer any question in arithmetic that was asked me."

"If you please, sir, I can give you a question I don't think you can answer."

"What is that?"

"Why, sir, suppose one apple caused the ruin of the whole human race, how many such apples would it take to make a barrel of cider?" Schoolmaster fainted.

This puts us in mind of an examination which came off in one of the back settlements, not long since. The schoolmaster was interrogating the children in relation to Geography, when the question was put: "Does the sun rise in the east or west?" A little girl spoke up promptly and said "I can't tell, sir; I never get up to see." The teacher, of course, saw visions of a leather medal.

A Yankee and a Southerner were playing poker on a steamboat—

"I haven't seen an ace for some time," remarked the Southerner.

"Wall, I guess you hain't," said Yank, "but I can tell you where they be. One of 'em is up your shirt sleeve, and t'other three are in the top of one of my butes."

REMOVAL.
Dr. J. C. Young,
HAS removed his office from 232 Dupont street to the corner of Montgomery and California streets, opposite the Banking House of Page, Bacon & Co., where he will be happy to consult with his former patrons, and treat scientifically and with discretion, all those who may require the services of a physician. The success of Dr. Young since his advent in this State, has been without a parallel, and he hopes by continued and untiring application to his profession, to remove from the public mind that lack of confidence which has so unhappily existed in regard to the medical profession in the State of California.
P. S.—All letters enclosing $10 will receive immediate attention. Direct box 738, Post Office, San Francisco.
N. B.—All papers in the State will please insert as special notice the above, for one month, and send bill to J. C. Young, M. D. dec1-tf

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.
READ AND REFLECT
"If there is a hereafter,
(And that there is, conscience unconfessed,
And suffered to speak out, tells every man,)
Then it is an awful thing to die.
More horrid yet to die by one's own hand.
Self murder—name it not!
Shall Nature, swerving from her earliest dictate,
Self preservation, fall by its own act?
Forbid it, Heaven."

THE indulgence in secret practices is the most certain, though not always the most immediate and direct avenue to destruction. Physicians of all ages have been most unanimously of opinion that the loss of one ounce of the seminal secretions, by unnatural aid or emissions, weakens the system more than the abstraction of forty ounces of blood. One of the most writers on medical jurisprudence states that three-fourths of the insane owe their malady to such abuse.
How important, then, it is—for every one having the least cause to suspect any trouble in that way, should attend to it immediately; even one single occurrence should be sufficient to cause doubt, and much more so if the person had ever indulged in the soul-killing habit. The treatment pursued by the justly celebrated Dr. J. C. Young, in cases of seminal weakness, impotency, sterility, nervous debility, and paralysis, (the last is the most dangerous, and when it once occurs, is incurable,) is surpassed by any physician in the country. It is the same as that followed by him for years, under the guidance of the world-renowned Record of Paris, and Acton of London.
Dr. Young's office is corner of Montgomery and California streets, opposite Page, Bacon & Co., San Francisco, California, where he can be consulted upon that and all other private diseases, with the utmost confidence and secrecy. Dr. Young will warrant a perfect and permanent cure, or make no charge.
N. B.—Letters enclosing $10 will receive prompt attention. The doctor's time being so much taken up that he cannot attend to letters unless paid for it.
P. S.—Apartments privately arranged.

A CARD.
FROM Dr. J. C. Young's Private Medical Office.—TO THE AFFLICTED.—In this age of progress, when science is developing itself in such a manner as to appear almost miraculous, everything in common place is looked upon as not worth notice. In view of this fact, DR. YOUNG, corner of Montgomery and California streets, San Francisco, California, has concluded to leave the beaten track hitherto pursued by most scientific physicians, (that of waiting for the public to find you out alone) and publish to the world, as much as may be, his knowledge of the healing art, to let those who are in need of assistance know where they can find relief, without fear of being imposed upon.
In continuation of this object, Dr. Young would say that for the past ten years he has pursued the practice of medicine in one of the largest cities of the United States, with the highest success, and that his standing as a physician is without reproach, having at one time been lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania on venereal diseases, &c.
Upon all these considerations, Dr. Young has confidence in introducing himself to the public, knowing that they will sustain well earned merit.
The following are a few of the many testimonials, which have appeared in the public journals the last few years:

[From the Boston Medical Journal.]
Although we are opposed to the system of advertising, for good and sufficient reasons, still we deem it but justice to say that Dr. Young is one of the most industrious and indefatigable votaries of the medical science in the United States.

[From Professor Jackson.]
The subscriber is personally acquainted with Dr. Young, and has seen much of his practice, and can bear testimony to his merits as a practitioner.

[From the New York Herald.]
The eminence of this distinguished gentleman in his profession, and the very extended opportunities possessed by him for the observation of venereal disease, makes his services invaluable to those afflicted with the above complaints.

MEDICAL ADVICE.
DR. J. C. Young, who has become so celebrated for the thousands of cures which he has performed on old, chronic, mercurial, syphilitic, and all private diseases, without mercury, is consulted daily at his office, corner of Montgomery and California streets, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. A cure guaranteed or no pay.
Dr. J. C. Young has probably had more practice in venereal diseases than any other physician in California. He cures all the most aggravated cases of this disease, and mild ones he removes in from two to five days. The doctor has for many years, been known as the most eminent and successful physician in the United States, and what is more important to the patient, he always effects a speedy and permanent cure.
Travelers, seamen, miners and others, who wish to be cured without mercury, hindrance from business, or exposure to friends, should apply to him, as soon as possible, and a perfect cure will be guaranteed in all curable cases. Recollect the name and number, Dr. J. C. Young, corner of Montgomery and California streets.
Office open from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

CONSTITUTIONAL INFIRMITY.
FOR SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Young addresses those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences in that secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, rendering them for either business or society. The following are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c.
Mentally the fearful effects on the mind are more to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
All persons who are afflicted with any of the above symptoms should not fail to call on Dr. Young, and be at once restored to perfect health. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately, and save yourself from the dreadful and awful consequences of this terrible malady.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
Corner of Montgomery and California streets.
For sale as above the celebrated French Lunar Pills, these pills are now acknowledged by the medical fraternity to be the only safe, mild and efficacious remedy to be depended upon in long standing cases of suppression, irregularity, or stopping of the functions of nature, the neglect of which is the source of such deplorable effects on the female frame.
N. B.—These pills are highly celebrated as a preventive.

PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE.
HUNDREDS of those who have contracted disease are disappointed of a cure by not calling on DR. YOUNG at first. He will forfeit any sum if he fails to cure any case that may come under his care, no matter how long standing and afflicting, such as ulcers, tumors, nodes, bunches, pimples on the face and body, pains in the bones and joints, wakefulness, trembling, copper-colored sores, wasting of the bones, emaciation, loss of appetite, strength and flesh, sores in the nose and ears, loss of hair, weak eyes, itching humors, &c., &c. Many persons, after being relieved of all external appearances of private disease, suppose themselves cured, but after a few months find they are troubled with various symptoms which they never had before, and which they find it impossible to relieve.
To all who are afflicted in this way, Dr. Young would particularly recommend a trial of his skill. The symptoms with which you are troubled are caused by taints in the blood, which sooner or later will destroy your health and happiness. No person who has ever had an attack of any private complaint should fail to consult Dr. Young, and take a few bottles of his invaluable purifying medicine as they can rest assured that their blood is in a perfectly pure and healthy condition, and that every trace of disease is removed from the system.
Recent cases cured in from two to five days, without change of diet or hindrance from business, or no charge.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. J. C. YOUNG, who is celebrated for curing all private complaints of both sexes, has discovered a remedy for the cure of old, long standing cases of gonorrhœa and gleets, which he has tried in more than one hundred cases, successfully, many of which had baffled the skill of eminent physicians for years; and in not one single case has it failed, nor can it ever fail, as the nature of the remedy is such that it strikes at the root of the complaint and eradicates it completely in a few days. New cases cured in an incredibly short space of time, without change of diet or hindrance from business.
N. B.—A permanent cure guaranteed to all in the shortest possible time, or no pay will be taken.
